Explore the benefits

Experienced advisors

Ricoh's Education Services team is made up of technology consultants who understand the unique IT requirements of K-12 schools and districts. From Virtual CIOs to security analysts, engineers and service techs, we work with you to build digital-first solutions that enhance learning experiences. And with more than 15 years serving the education sector, we leverage our industry knowledge to recommend the right services and technology for your students, teachers and staff.

Deep partner relationships

With Ricoh, you'll benefit from our extensive partner and vendor relationships so you can unlock even more value for your school. As a certified service provider for E-Rate, you can get access to funding assistance to further help your school or library acquire the devices and connectivity needed for digital learning. And as a verified vendor for several cooperative purchasing partners (NASPO, Sourcewell & OMNIA), you get the most streamlined procurement process and competitively priced contracts.

Comprehensive solutions-provider

With more than just IT Services in our portfolio, Ricoh is uniquely positioned to be your single-source partner for a wide range of other digital services and solutions. Whether it's streamlining processes for admin staff, improving records management for compliance regulations or inspiring more dynamic and collaborative lessons, Ricoh has a solution that can help.
